How To Completely Uninstall Avg Internet Security 2012

The screenshot shows the AVG Internet Security interface. At the top left is the AVG logo. A red box highlights a status message: "You are protected. All security features are working correctly and are up to date." Below this is a "Security components and status overview" section with a grid of 12 components, each with a status icon and "Active" label. A red box highlights the "Update now" button in the left sidebar, which shows "Last update: 10/25/10, 9:29 AM". Another red box highlights the "Virus DB: 422/3217", "AVG version: 10.0.1144", and "License expires: 2/26/2018" information in the bottom left sidebar. The "Description of selected component" section at the bottom right shows "Selected component description (no component selected right now)." The interface also includes buttons for "Overview", "Scan now" (with "Last scan: 10/24/10, 9:14 PM" and "Scan options"), and "Update now".
